UCC Mission Trip Fundraiser

Assist the UCC in making the annual trip to Richmond to aid the people there.

Following The Story tonight we will have the auction.

"THE MAIN THING"

1. To love the Lord our God with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind and with all our strength.
2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.
3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

PLEASE FILL OUT A FELLOWSHIP CARD

Everyone is asked to fill out a Fellowship Card, which you will find in the song book rack. If you have questions or comments, feel free to write them on the back of the Fellowship Card, or talk to any member. The cards are picked up at the start of our service or can be placed in an offering plate.

For visitors, more general information is available on bookmarks in the Bibles located in the song book rack.

Gregg's Good News

I have heard much positive feedback concerning the Women's Retreat at the coast two weeks ago. But I was pleasantly caught by surprise to learn that last week's sermon was such a good exclamation point to the Women's weekend. Apparently the retreat teaching emphasized finding your mission. And my teaching offered a complementary invitation for women to recognize the broad expanse of opportunities for women to express their faith and gifts.

Some women asked if I had designed my sermon in response to conversations with Pam about the Women's retreat. But the truth is, I started reflecting on II Timothy last October and have been planning this sermon series for months.

Last Sunday's experience brought me great joy. I am always much more comfortable when I have a preaching plan that extends well into the future. But I experienced again, as I have many times in the past, a sermon planned weeks in advance for a particular date was the perfect fit when that Sunday actually came.

In addition to fitting with the Women's retreat, one of our Teens shared with me. The sermon provided the perfect answer to a question her friends posed just days before. She was excited to have words to explain herself that she lacked when her friends first posed the question.

I am not that insightful to the future nor am I that lucky to choose the sermon that would be the perfect fit for a Sunday that is weeks away. But I know HIM, the One who is able to know what we need before the prayer even passes through our lips. So I pause to say an extra prayer of thanks to the God who is Sovereign over his church. I give thanks to the God who is gracious enough to shape my preaching schedule. I wouldn't have it any other way.

"I want to do something great...but I'm too old." "I want to serve...but I have kids." "I want to impact people's lives." These and others are words I have heard and yet this church continues to serve, continues to sacrifice, and continues to grow in Jesus Christ. Praise God.

I look forward to tonight when you rally around our college students and support them by buying desserts and funding our Spring Break Mission Trip. All the proceeds from this go towards missions and sending our UCC students to California. Thank you for your sacrifice. Thank you for your support.
