Gregg's Good News

Next Sunday, Nov. 8, is "Sacrifice Sunday." I invited us to reach for several goals in what has become a season of sharing for Circle Church of Christ.

$5,000 for Orphans is a way of communicating Christ's compassion to corners of the world I will likely never visit.

$5,000 for Circle allows us to continue our work of communicating Christ to one another and the local community.

5 food items will be combined with others and then given to members of the church or people who live within touch of the church. Clearly, one way Jesus communicated his power as well as care was by feeding people.

In addition, Nov. 8 is also the day to return your shoebox for "Operation Christmas Child."

On one hand, that may sound like too much giving for one Sunday. But if it means you and I have to actually sacrifice and trust God, maybe that's not such a bad thing.

You have heard me use the following words to begin setting our vision: "Changing the World by Communicating Christ: From Corvallis to the Continents." The only hope for this world is for there to be a spread of God's kingdom. As more people bow to the Lordship of Jesus, attitudes and actions will change. But that growth of the kingdom is based on Christ being known, seen, heard and worshipped.

God has placed this congregation at a unique place and time. The world comes to our town for education. Let's train people in the essentials—knowing God—so every city, state and continent they return to will know God as well.

As impossible as it may seem, the Community Christmas Sing-A-Long is now one month away. At tonight's 5:00 pm gathering, I plan to pass out copies of "Hallelujah Chorus" so you can start practicing it.

We organized and ran a haunted house at the University Christian Center last Friday to raise money for the zero child we support, Moise Jean, and for Christian Relief Fund. For those who have never heard the term, a "zero child" is a child born to a family who cannot afford or does not want to support them, and they are essentially an orphan.

Another aspect of the haunted house involved getting people who have never been in a church to come into the UCC and meet people their own age who enjoy having fun. It was a great opportunity to meet new people and take some of the "scariness" out of Christianity for them!

November 8th is "Sacrifice Sunday." Let's aim for offering $5,000 for orphans, $5,000 for Circle needs and 5 food items between now and November 8th. We raised $2,180.50 for Mountain State's Children's Home through the can drive! Let's continue to give!

A Few Food Pantry Needs

Mac and Cheese
Canned Fruit
Tomato Soup

November 8th is also "Food to the Stage" day! Please bring a donation that day!
