Gregg's Good News

I was glad to hear from many of you that last Sunday's emphasis on "Give Thanks in All Circumstances" was an uplifting assembly time. Afterwards, Luci Spencer shared two quotes with me that are noteworthy. (Thanks, Luci)

"Your life is a gift from God: What you do with it is your gift to Him."
"Ingratitude is the back door through which blessings escape."

Both of those strike me as worthy of reflection as we close off this week of Thanksgiving. In addition, why not expand this to a season of Thanksgiving?

I recently heard a man speak about his journey back from an extremely awful season of life. His counselor recommended that he pause each hour to compose one sentence that was an expression of thanks. He reported that the exercise though deceptively simple, was incredibly powerful in reshaping his mind and mood.

Cell phones beep all the time with other demands. You could set an alarm as a regular reminder to "Give thanks in all circumstances."

Rehearsal tonight for Community Christmas Sing-A-Long, 5:00-6:00 pm.

The event is now only 1 week away.

Singers are asked to make themselves available for these 2 rehearsals.

Tonight at 5:00 pm
Friday, Dec. 4, at 6:30 pm

Over the years, the Sing-A-Long has been a very easy event to invite guests to. You will find flyers and invitations to pass along in the foyer.

Singers and Congregation: Let's make sure we are prepared to help it be an evening of both fun and spiritual focus. Sing with gusto. Seek out a guest and welcome them.

Women's Winter Weekend Retreat
Feb 5-7 2016
Registration is now open for Circle members and regular attendees for the first "35" women, until Dec. 1st. After that date, it will be open for other family members and friends.
Please see Laurie Eastridge to register with either a $25 deposit or full payment of $100.

CITE classes are beginning again in January. Winter term will be: 3713 CONTEMPORARY ETHICS.

How do you decide what is right versus wrong and good versus bad? Is it based on experience or a feeling? What is the foundation for choosing what action to take? This course engages these questions as we explore the foundations for moral decision making and ethical theory in Western Civilization and Christianity. We will also study significant ethical issues in contemporary society including: biotechnology, beginning and ending life, punishment, war and peace, gender roles, marriage, social justice, environmental ethics, animal rights, and cyberethics.

The class meets on Tuesdays & Thursdays, 5:15-7:15pm (first class is January 5)
The cost is only $30 for credit or $50 to audit.

The all hands on deck decoration day for the SAL is Wednesday 12-2 from 6 to 8 PM. If that is a night you have life group, the elders ask you to instead come to the church and help decorate for the Sing A Long. When everyone pitches in it makes the job easier. Come on down when you can. The SAL is an effort to reach out to the community. There is no easier invite to a church event that you can make. (We have four all hands on deck days during the year; three are for the clothing drive and one is for the SAL). The elders ask that you find a way to support the SAL! Thanks!
