Gregg's Good News

I am glad that people are finding the sermon series "Joseph and the Dream" to be compelling. Last Sunday, we considered the odd twists and turns of Joseph meeting his brothers many years after they sold him into slavery. In several ways, those moments illustrate the confusing and convoluted route to reconciliation and forgiveness.

In response to that sermon, Luci Spencer shared the following quote: "Forgiveness is the fragrance of the violet which clings fast to the heel that crushed it." (George Roemisch)

A special "Thank You" to the many couples who were present Sunday evening to assist with Mentoring on "Raising Children of Faith." As the hour progressed, it became very clear to me that the Mentors present will have numerous helpful insights for parents who are still in the child rearing project. This series of conversations is going to be well worth the time investment.

In our first session, we considered a few Scriptures and a handout with basic insights to dealing with misbehavior. Seasoned parents offered good insights to ideas that shaped their approach to passing on the faith.

If you were not present, it is not too late to join. Our next session is Sunday, March 6 at 5:00 pm. I am willing to supply materials from the first session in advance of the second session if you missed.

If you have a specific question or situation you would like to have addressed, please submit it to me and I will work to weave that into the future meetings.

Thoughts, Questions, Notes

There is a women's class available starting 3-6-16 for three months on Sunday mornings in the basement. The book is entitled Twelve Extraordinary Women by John MacArthur. There is a paperback reading book, along with a workbook. The theme is "How God shaped women of the Bible and what He wants to do with you." Eve, Sarah, Ruth, Anna, Martha & Mary and Lydia are just some of the women we will take a look at. Leaders will include Summer Shore, Barb Hammar, Jennifer House and Laurie Eastridge. If you have any questions, please see Laurie Eastridge. The adult class in the auditorium remains open to all. Casey for Adult Education

Fred Meyer gives us money just for shopping! $14.38 was given to Circle on February 16th, and more money will be given if you link your rewards account to Circle. This does not affect your rewards or gas points.

Attention Men!

A Yamhill Men's Retreat is coming up on March 10th-13th. Men ages 12-80+ are encouraged to attend, and the theme is "Legacy". Cost is $85 for Thursday night-Sunday or $75 for Friday morning-Sunday. The event will be sponsored by SW Church of Christ in Tigard, OR.

We have a Lost and Found table in the foyer behind the bread box. If you are missing a pair of glasses, or anything else, please check it out!

Time passes by so quickly. Rylee Gollakner and our Justus are almost a month old. Winter Term and our Christian Ethics class are almost over. And the Spring Break Mission Trip is coming up crazy fast. It will seem like no time before summer is here and we are in the midst of VBC and Clothing Give Away preparations.

Our year in the church has many annual events: the Dessert Auction, VBC, Clothing Give Away, Food Boxes and Christmas Sing-A-Long. It is easy to feel too busy, then resolve to be more involved next year. However, there are people we can help and differences that can be made this year. Your time is valuable and your service at these events can make a huge difference in the lives of many people.

More Good News!

The Gunselmans are thankful for the blessings their family has experienced and learned for the past 16 years of being involved in competitive swimming. They are proud of their children for their hard work and dedication to be successful swimmers, using their God given talents in this way. Thankful for the many lives they have touched through their good examples. Congratulations to Esther and the Sweet Home Huskies for their 1st place trophies for boys and girls teams at the district championships, as well as 1st place team trophy for girls and 3rd place for boys at State Championships. Congratulations to Esther for her 3rd place medal in 100yd butterfly at State, and congratulations to Joel for being an assistant coach to a successful team.
