Gregg's Good News

During the Summer in Oregon, most of us want to maximize the time enjoying life outdoors. But it's not only church members who feel that way, many of our neighbors also spend more time outside.

That reality creates an interesting opportunity. What if we take the church to a place people will naturally be, rather than waiting for them to come to the church building?

If you examine the Mission Methods of Paul, you will discover that sometimes he preaches at the synagogue. On another occasion he preaches in Athens at a public gathering. But when he and the mission team first came to Phillipi, they went to the riverside. One of the women they met was named Lydia. And before long, she was baptized. That intrigues me. Paul goes where people are gathered and makes a connection for God.

I invite you to join me in taking the church outside the building. On three Sunday's this Summer: June 26, July 24 and Aug. 28; we are gathering at Cloverland Park at 5:00 pm.

After some singing, prayer and Lord's Supper, we will eat together picnic style. Then, everyone is free to go play and meet other people who are already at the park.

Ride your bikes, bring your kids and a sandwich or something simple to eat. A soccer ball or Frisbee could also be a good item to attract a few folks to join us.

The organizers will bring a few chairs. But if you have a camp chair, it would be good to bring it along.

Here's another idea: If you have a friend you've been wanting to introduce to church people, invite them to come and join the picnic.

Thoughts, Questions, Notes

Bennett Reese Verzosa was born on June 15th. He had a bit of a rough start in that he aspirated some fluid into his lungs, turned purple and stopped breathing for a few seconds. He is being taken care of in the NICU. Praise God that things are improving! Please pray for baby Bennett, his mother Hannah, and father and sister Jeremy & Kaylynn.

Madison Noel King was born Wednesday night to parents Ryan and Ashley King and big sister Olivia. She weighed 7 lbs, 10 oz and was 21" long.

Summer is here and so is the lure to get married. Next Saturday our very own Cory Murray and Carissa Sweet will get married down in Medford. I hope some of you choose to come. Cory and Carissa have been great additions to the UCC and Circle. They have taught Bible classes, cleaned and served in many different ways. They have been leaders at UCC since their Sophomore year and continue to be involved, grow as disciples and invite others to join them.

If you would like to come to the wedding on Saturday, a van is leaving Circle at 12:45 pm. Please let Maria know as soon as possible if you will be riding in the van, and meet at Circle at 12:30 on Saturday.
