5:00PM Sunday Evening Service

Wednesday: 7:00 PM UCC this week

Office Hours: M-F 8am-2pm

1. Today is the last day of the term. A huge thanks to all of our teachers for all they do! Summers are always a bit of a challenge. If you see a teacher give them a hug. Thanks also to our adult teachers, Mark, Bill and Jake. Our adult offering, starting next Sunday, will take a look at the lives of several different men and women of the Bible. The Bible is full of stories of people that make right and wrong decisions and the ramifications that ensue. We can learn from their courage, their weakness, their actions and their lack of action. Frank, Gregg and I will lead this class. Please join us! Casey for Education
2. What a blessing it was to have so many helping hands on Wednesday night! Thursday morning you couldn't even tell that the building had been packed with clothes and equipment just the night before. We touched many lives. People were especially grateful this year.
3. Let us all show up at UCC on Wednesday at and work with the same spirit and energy to get that job done.
4. Women: If you haven't already, you need to get registered for Yamhill Women's Retreat. Let Laurie Eastridge know if you're attending. Circle women have responsibility for a few things this year at camp. Please inform Laurie how you can assist. Loretta has registration forms as well as lists of what to pack.
5. Men: Let Rolland know if you are going to attend the Sept. 17 "Men of Iron" event. Get him your money for game tickets. The deadline is near.
6. Thanks to Cathy Brooks for bringing us bread. However this has come to an end. Some mailboxes are getting full. Please check and empty yours.

"The Main Thing"

1. To love the Lord our God with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind and with all our strength.
2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.
3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

Gregg's Good News

Creation moves in rhythm. The sun comes up, the sun goes down. The tides come in, the tides go out. That comes as no surprise, for the Creator himself designed life to have a rhythm. For six days he worked at creation, on the seventh day he rested.

As I consider that sense of rhythm for the church body, it suggests several things. To begin with, we have just come through a season with lots of work to prepare and produce the Clothing Giveaway. 1001 people were served. So, it is reasonable to follow that with a "seventh day." Catching our breath and reflecting on the work God did during the preceding "six days" is right.

Yet the fact is that before the Clothing Giveaway, VBC was a big effort for some church members. In a healthy church body, one would hope that a different group bore the brunt of the Clothing Giveaway work while the VBC leaders had a "seventh day."

I am talking about rhythm in the life of the church. It is tempting to be content with one group of workers rising up for every major event. That is a recipe for those workers to wear out and walk away from tasks. A healthier model is for varying groups of people to be at the forefront of efforts, followed by a "seventh day."

("All hands on deck" events are good occasions for all of us to pitch in because some works are just too big for the leaders and a few more people to get the job done.)

Human bodies show the strain of "repetitive motion injuries." When you do too much for too long, the body is damaged. I appeal to church members who typically are content to watch others do the work: In order for others to get their "seventh day," your six days of work need to be done sometime or the body will be injured.

As the school year begins, the UCC building needs its annual repair time (Wed, Aug. 31). Guests will start appearing on Sunday morning who will need to be greeted and incorporated. Sunday "Meet, Greet and Eat" lunches will be starting in Sept.

Will that be Sabbath for the same people who rest most of the time, and another work month for the busy members of the body? OR will this body learn to imitate the rhythm of the Creator himself.

The Clothing Giveaway was a smashing success...except we didn't smash or break anything. Everyone worked so hard and efficiently and the people receiving clothes this year were so thankful. They were blessed and sharing it. What a great ministry we have. Thank you for all that took part.

Do you feel the coolness in the air? Me neither. But Fall is here anyway and that means we are starting to gear up for UCC again. This Wednesday is our annual UCC workday. We have a lot of cleaning, organizing, and projects to work on again this year. I plan to start work at 4pm and we will wrap up at 7:45pm with a time of worship and prayer. We also have signups for Tuesday night meals and desserts for this year. See Josh or myself today and pick the day you want to bless college students. Thank you for your support of this great ministry.
