A Circle Open To You

Our new adult class that starts today will be looking at the book "Life Changing Bible Verses You Should Know", by Erwin Lutzer. This would be a good book for you to buy if interested. cbd.com, amazon and the local Christian Book Store would be good places to get it. Our teachers for the new term will be Rolland House, Greg Brown and Josh Parker. This will be a study looking at major life issues, problems and opportunities and specific verses that give insight, perspective and hope in how to think about them. These classes will provide a time of encouragement and building up of the church body. Please make plans to join us at 9:30 AM (with your children if applicable)!

A big thanks to everyone who helped make the sing a long a fun success. Your efforts are appreciated!
 Casey, for the elders

2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.
3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

Gregg's Good News

Thank you to all the people who gathered to rehearse and sing for many weeks so that last night's Sing-A-Long could be such a fine evening. Even though only a few of us have any formal training in music, the combination of practice at home, perseverance in singing the song time and again, as well as prayer, results in an uplifting program. I appreciate your willingness to serve God and neighbor in this way.

Woven into last evening's program was a play called "The Road to Bethlehem." Readers expressed the sentiments of 5 key characters from the story of Jesus' birth.

I appreciate the extra time these men and women invested to bring the story to life last night and in weeks to come.

Starting today, the sermons will focus on those same 5 characters. My hope is that guests who were positively touched at the Sing-A-Long will find those thoughts and the call from God reignited as we revisit the characters they met on Saturday evening.

In an effort to keep the feeling of a drama, the various characters will appear in our own homemade "movie" today and for the next few Sundays. We will be viewing video segments of the characters reading their lines from the play. The aim is to help us gather insights to God as we examine the unique way each of these Biblical characters fit into the broader story of Jesus' incarnation.

This morning, expect to meet Elizabeth. Even though she is not a character typically spoken about at length when considering the infancy of Jesus, she demonstrates the truth of the statement, "All things are possible with God."
