

Circle Church Classifieds

Tutorial

In the New Testament, it was clear that the members of the early church shared their possessions liberally with one another (cf Acts 2:45). The Circle congregation has a similar history. Indeed our community wide clothing drive was originally started as a modest program that allowed families to share children's clothes with one another that had been outgrown.

The Circle Classifieds are intended for congregation wide sharing of our physical blessings that we no longer need. These could be to give away or for sale. The advantage of a 'semi-private' classified program is that we know one another and don't have the concerns that placing items on 'Craigslist' would bring. In addition, we know that items we have come to treasure will find a good home within the church family.

This document is intended to help new users navigate the system. Since this is a new program there will be early bugs, so please let us know any issues by sending an email to the media ministry at: info@2020circle.com

What does 'semi private' mean?

The ads themselves will be viewable by anyone who goes to the Circle website, and navigates to the classified area. However the names and contact info will be not be displayed. If an interested party clicks on "contact seller", they will be taken to a page that says:

Only registered users can reply to Ads. If you are already registered, please login below in order to reply to the Ad.

Since this is a semi-private program, you will first need to register. This is done by sending an email with the subject line circle classifieds to:

The email should contain:

1. The email address you want to use as a contact
