Gregg's Good News

This is the first Sunday since the beginning of class at the colleges. If you are here at church for the first time, I hope you will stay and join us for lunch today and come back next week.

If you have not yet met one of our Campus Ministers, Jason Swick or Josh Stutzman, I hope you will meet them today. They will be happy to tell you about various ways you can find a belonging place with other students on either the LBCC or OSU campuses.

If you are a Christian, I hope you already have your eyes open to other people that you can meet and invite to join with you in worship.

No matter how long you have been a Christian, you may have a question that you've never quite had an answer for. If that is the case, be sure to be present this evening.

The plan is for us to play "Stump the Preacher." You can write out your question and I will do my best to answer it if it gets pulled out of the hat. After I give it a try, the larger group will provide their insights.

We will start Sunday evening with a question we did not get to at the previous event: "How can we maximize the effect (fruit) of the Spirit in our lives?"

Come and join in the fun.

Thank you, thank you, thank you!! Thank you for everyone who came to UCC last Sunday and helped to prepare our building to welcome the students this year. Already we have used the building for an open house, gathering place for events, game night, and simply for students to hang out. Thank you for your sacrifice and work.

It's an honor to be part of a congregation that did so much these last few months. We prepared for and hosted a TNT which had over 100 teens attend. Then we moved into preparations for our annual clothing giveaway which serves countless families in the valley with free clothes. After that, we hosted the Men of Iron event with nearly 100 men being encouraged by Eli Hooper. Following the workday last weekend, we had a vision meeting yesterday. This is a church that is doing many great things. Thank you all for being disciples. Thank you for your service. Thank you for your sacrifice. I love being part of this family.
