Gregg's Good News

On Sunday afternoon at 3:00, I copied the prayer requests and notes written by shoppers at the Clothing Giveaway. During our 5:00 meeting, we presented those prayers to God.

The following note was written after 3:00 pm. It was the very last one in the notebook. "We just came from Seattle with a family of 4. We were only able to salvage enough to bring 1 car load of personal belongings. This was truly the answer to our prayers. We had no idea what to do and this gave us a way to clothe the kids and us for work. Thank you!!"

This year, we had over 1,100 visits from shoppers. (Some people came more than once.) While each person has his/her own story, the quote above demonstrates the reality that the Clothing Giveaway event meets genuine needs.

It was interesting to observe that most all of the comments from this year were "Thank You's." So, I pass along those "Thank You's" to everyone who served and "Thank You" to our gracious God.

GUEST SPEAKER NEXT SUNDAY: Eli Hooper will be speaking for the "Men of Iron" event on Saturday. He will also be preaching Sunday morning. Next weekend I am scheduled as retreat speaker for Newberg Church of Christ.

We have enjoyed three Sunday evenings in Cloverland Park this Summer. With Fall just around the corner, the plan is to enjoy one last Sunday summer evening together outside.

NOTE: The location for tonight's gathering is Willamette Park. Go South through downtown on Hwy 99W. Turn left at Goodnight Ave. The park is on the river. Bring chairs or blankets to sit on.

PM PREVIEW TONIGHT: 5:00 pm
Willamette Park: Singing, Scripture and Prayer
