Learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.
Mt 11:29

To the humble He gives favor Proverbs 3:34

Be like the bamboo: the higher you grow, the deeper you bow. Chinese Proverb

Humility is not thinking less of yourself but thinking of yourself less. -C.S. Lewis

Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Eph 4:2

WHOEVER EXALTS HIMSELF WILL BE HUMBLED, BUT WHOEVER HUMBLES HIMSELF
WILL BE EXALTED. MT 23:12

Pride is concerned with who is right, humility is concerned with what is right.
Ezra T. Benson

In humility, count others more significant than yourselves.

Philippians 2:3

*He has told you, oh man, what is good:
and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with your God?
Micah 6:8*

"The Main Thing"

1. To love the Lord our God with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind and with all our strength.
2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.
3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

Gregg's Good News

Part 3, continued from last week

When a church is seeking a new staff member, early in the process a congregation must spend time understanding who they are and who they believe God wants them to be. "Who is this congregation?" Here are a few answers I suggest.

7. We are a congregation with people from many age groups. That is an asset in many ways. Children in the life of the church create a sense of hope for the future: Hope that the church will persist. A combination of ages allows older people to mentor and encourage younger people through life experiences that the older person has already gone through. As older people listen to younger people, it provides a wealth of insight to the current world that we are trying to reach with the gospel.

Some congregations were intentionally designed to target a specific age group. That is not us. The perceived advantage in targeting a group is that church leaders can design the church activities, worship style and schedule to suit that age group. For example, one college student told me she likes the church where she attends because she can go to church on Saturday night and sleep in on Sunday morning. Worship style, preaching topics, and which needy people to support are all shaped by the preferences or needs of an age segment.

Obviously, that is not us. So it leaves us with the very challenging question: How do we help people from many different age groups in the church feel valued and choose to be engaged in all the crucial aspects of church life?

Minister Search Committee Update
We covet your prayers!

Please pray for us to receive our guidance from God.

Pray for a smooth transition for our new Minister and his family.

Pray for Circle to be accepting of and willing to welcome a new Minister.

Pray for each candidate to put their best foot forward in the application process.

Serving in the name of Jesus. It was the ending of the sermon last week. How did you do? Did you remember to share a story with a coworker or neighbor? Did you make a story by serving in the name of Jesus? Sometimes it's listening and building a relationship.

Remember Titus 3:3-8 and consider how you can trust our amazing God even more this week and do the good He is calling you to do.

This weekend our family is in Richland, WA. We are at the LTC (Leadership Training for Christ) conference. This program is designed for kids to grow in ministry areas that bless the church now and help them grow as disciples that will lead the church in the future. Amanda and I are exploring if this will be a good fit for the Circle kids.
