Alex Fieldhouse, George House, and I had a wonderful time at Sr. Teen Camp last week. 140 students attended, and at least 7 (maybe more) gave their lives to Christ in baptism. Two boys from my cabin became Christians, and 9 students signed up for more information about UCC. I was deeply moved and honored when Cameron Stark and Daniel Hunt (2 boys from my cabin) asked me for advice about how to baptize their friend Hannah (pictured left). I knew in that moment that God is raising up a new generation of disciples to share His message—and I was honored to be part of HIS work. If you are a 1st-12th grader, I strongly encourage you to go to Camp Yamhill next summer and encounter the living God. If you are a 13th-102nd grader, I encourage you to counsel at Camp Yamhill and be a part of what God is doing in the lives of Oregon's youth. -Josh
