Amanda Kirwin (niece of Les & Joyce Brooks, breast cancer)

Clella Boyd

Please continue to pray for:

Keith Cornell, Phil & Linda Weimer, Donna Johnson, Merle & Jean Woods, Betty Carter, Andi Graham (Bill Perry's sister, acute rheumatoid arthritis), Virgil Oakes

Please pray for the following members with health needs:

Pray for little Raven Womack, who will have ear surgery again on 8/7.

Please keep praying for Tom Powell's father with late stage Alzheimer's.

Pray for Nancy Mitten, who has been having dizzy spells. She is better, but tired.

Please pray for Frankie Kent's blood pressure to stabilize.

Pray for Jeannie Oxley's Aunt Maureen, in the hospital with pneumonia.

Continue prayers for Sophie, that oral chemo will work.

Spiritual:

The Hartmans pray for this church to not give Satan a foothold as we go through change.

Physical:

Please pray for Sharon, a good friend and member of Brian Sandine's home church, who lost her husband last Sunday morning.

Pray for Rick York, Geri's son, and his wife, who evacuated their home in Redding to Medford. Their home and place of business are likely burnt.

Pray for the minister search.

Pray for those affected by the fires.

Gregg's Good News

One important aspect of being a church leader is mentioned at Eph. 4:12, "to prepare God's people for works of service." The easiest way I know to do that is by having a person with me as I do ministry. Since I don't have all of you with me all the time, I offer the following principles and story.

One aspect of Christian service is evangelism. You have heard me say, "Success is Sowing." For me, that means every time I choose to go ahead and say a gospel word, do a service in Jesus' name, or somehow make God known—that is a moment of success. I cannot control the response from people. I can only control whether I do the "Jesus thing." And when I do, I choose to view it as success.

As a corollary to that thought, I've shaped my activity around another practice. "The more people I talk to, and the longer I talk, the greater the probability I can put in a good word for Jesus."

Lately, I've discovered that many people will converse with me if I mention their tattoos. It easily moves to talking about what the art means to that person, which often opens the door for me to do some sowing. So, until I make the language catchier, I'll add the principle: "Talk to people about their tattoos."

I was buying gasoline recently. As I was washing my window, I said to the young woman assisting me, "I really like that cross tattoo you have." After she acknowledged my appreciation, I continued, "Do you have a church that you are involved with?" She replied, "Not since I've gotten to Corvallis." That created the open door for me to say, "Well, I am with Church of Christ, corner of Kings and Circle. You would always be welcome there." She smiled and thanked me.
