Gregg's Good News

As the congregation goes through this time of transition, let me remind you of 5 ideas from the article "8 Reasons Church Change Is So Difficult" by Charles Stone.

1. People naturally assume the worst.
2. People usually fill in knowledge gaps with fear instead of faith.
6. Old habits die hard.
7. Resistance to change often increases the closer you get to the change.
8. The brain often interprets change as a threat, which in turn creates resistance.

It will be important for you to keep a pulse on yourself regarding those patterns. And choose instead, "Trust God, Trust God, Trust God."

II Cor. 9:8 is a great promise for this season of the church. "And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work."

I was chatting with a Chinese student today who was struggling with anxiety. Quite a few Chinese children died recently due to a faulty vaccine. He felt angry, powerless and threatened. He wondered if he should continue to live in China or move somewhere else for the good of his future family.

Anxiety about the future affects us all negatively. Paul encourages us, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus (Phil 4:6-11)." Do you ever feel anxious about the future and things beyond your control? The Christian solution is prayer. Here is a prayer that I find helpful when dealing with anxiety:

"God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; Courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace; taking, as He did, this sinful world As it is, not as I would have it; trusting that He will make all things right If I surrender to His will; that I may be reasonably happy in this life And supremely happy with him forever in the next. Amen." ~Richard Niebuhr
