Gregg's Good News

Do you ever take note of good going on in another person's life and feel a tinge of displeasure? "Why do they enjoy prosperity, good fortune and no needs while I wrestle with life? I wish we could trade lives."

Meet the sin of envy. I Peter 2:1 calls Christians to rid themselves of it. Titus 3:3 says living a life of envy belonged in our life before being saved by God in Christ.

Often, envy is a result of making judgments based on falsehood. Viewing only the exterior of another person's life won't reveal other realities that person deals with. What looks to be a perfect marriage on the outside may fool you because you aren't aware that couple also must work at living in oneness.

A lifestyle of owning the latest and greatest may look appealing, unless you also witness the credit card bills a person lives with. But even if the person can pay cash for items, you cannot know if your life would truly be better if you also had those possessions. Perhaps the possessions would possess you. Perhaps you would lose life flexibility if you had to maintain a house that big.

Envy can be an insidious sin. It sneaks into our hearts and the primary damage is first done to ourselves. We feel less joy and peace because we aren't experiencing what we assume to be "her life." But eventually, envy may sour our relationship as we start to dislike or debase that person because we feel frustration that we don't have "his life".

Feeling envy is falling for Satan's schemes.

Pam and I are at a Ministry Couples Retreat next weekend. Look forward to Josh preaching.

Thoughts, Questions, Notes

Kindness Walk

Robert F. Smith is a blind man with an incredible heart. He and Renee's brother, Robert, are in the middle of a month-long walk from Long Beach, CA to Las Vegas, NV. They are raising money for a service dog for Renee's client, Tyler Renfro, as well as for the blind and veterans in need. Additionally, they are performing acts of kindness for people they meet along the way. Renee will join them on Nov. 10th. If you are interested in sponsoring Renee's steps or donating to a worthy cause, go to thekindnesswalk.org.

TUESDAY EAT IN OR TAKE OUT

Come to the building on Tuesday, November 13th, between 5 and 7pm for dinner! We are having salad, fresh baked rolls, tacos, refried beans, Spanish rice, and dessert. You can eat your meal here or take it home. Suggested donation: $3/adult, $1.50/child under 10 years old. Contact Loretta Hartman if you have questions, and see you here next Tuesday!

We've had another excellent action packed week at UCC. Let's give special thanks to Lindsay House for her creative organization of our Halloween party; we had pumpkin bowling, mummy wraps and more! We followed it up with a trip to the Tillamook Cheese Factory. Sam (pictured below) came to both activities and signed up for Friendspeak on the Tillamook trip.

Finally, I want to thank Gregg and Pam for their help with International Life Group. This couple talks the talk and walks the walk. Joining a life group is one of the best decisions you can make. The early Christians met frequently in their homes to eat together (Acts 2:46). Gregg and Pam took a creative twist on this scripture and started an American cooking class for Internationals. Guess what happened? Three new students set foot in UCC! Here's our structure for life group: First week of the month: American cooking class (evangelism), 2nd week: Praise and Prayer (worship), 3rd week: church planting (discipleship), 4th week: planning for next month (leadership).

Life groups are fresh, flexible and fun. They give us a chance to explore multiple aspects of the Christian life. Without life groups our faith can easily start feeling like book club attendance. But Jesus tells us to GO (Mt 28:19)! If you don't have a life group yet, talk to Jordan or Kellie Strawn.

Please help us feed our community!!! Bring boxes of crackers, 15 oz jars of PB, and/or boxes of stuffing to Circle Church this week!

Don't forget to write down an answered prayer and give the paper to Maria for Gregg to review (and maybe include) in his sermon next Sunday!
