"THE MAIN THING"

1. To love the Lord our God with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind and with all our strength.

2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.

3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

Gregg's Good News

Early in the week, I enjoyed the privilege of being taught by Evertt Huffard, Dean of Harding School of Theology; and James Thompson, Professor at Abilene Christian University who is recognized around the world as an expert in Hebrews and the Epistles of Paul.

As long as I have been preaching, I have carried the conviction that I always want to keep improving at the craft of Sermon Development and Presentation. I want to become more adept at understanding the Word of God I read in the Bible. I want to become more skillful at proclaiming so that you hear the Living Word of God. I want to continue to make progress not only as a Proclaimer of Jesus, I first want to keep making progress at Imitating the Lord Jesus.

There was a time in the history of Churches of Christ that many preachers had a file of written sermons that they would run through at a particular congregation. Then they would move to another congregation until the file was once again exhausted.

I am convinced that as this church continues to move through the experience of passing years, God likely has something to say to the congregation at this point in time. Consequently, before I preach—I seek to understand what God's preaching agenda for us is. Then, I work diligently at understanding the Bible's message and the meaning of that message for this church in Corvallis right now.

I keep a quote on my desk from Martin Luther: "Unless the gospel has been preached with contemporary relevance, it has not been preached." Clearly, we observe major changes in our culture. Yet my aim is not to alter the timeless gospel God wants you to hear. Rather, I want to proclaim that message in such a fashion that it is more than a report about characters and events of long ago and far away; it is God's timeless story to be understood so that it impacts today.

When preaching works as I hope, an encounter with God will occur. God will break into your mind and heart with the comfort or conviction he knows you need in the here and now.

CIRCLE CHURCH OF CHRIST

Gregg and I had a great trip to the NW Expositors Seminar early this week. It was a blessing to sit at the feet of a great theologian, James Thompson, and listen to his wisdom in understanding the book of 2 Corinthians. We were also encouraged through the wisdom of Evertt Huffard in being leaders that develop other leaders. If this wasn't enough, Gregg and I also encouraged those desiring to engage with college students. We gave them some ideas, prayed for them, and will walk with them. It is exciting to see what God is doing in the Pacific Northwest and for us to be able to be part of it here at Circle. Contact Numbers: 541-753-4310 UCC
