"THE MAIN THING"

1. To love the Lord our God with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind and with all our strength.

2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.

3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

Only 2 more evenings of Vacation Bible Club!

Don't miss the chance to be a Secret Agent for God!

July 23rd & 30th at 6:45 PM.

So I turned my mind to understand,
to investigate and to search out wisdom
and the scheme of things,

ECC1 7:25a

PLEASE FILL OUT A FELLOWSHIP CARD

Everyone is asked to fill out a Fellowship Card, which you will find in the song book rack. If you have questions or comments, feel free to write them on the back of the Fellowship Card, or talk to any member. The cards are picked up at the start of our service or can be placed in an offering plate.

For visitors, more general information is available on bookmarks in the Bibles located in the song book rack.

Gregg's Good News

Tonight, Gabriel Gunselman will be sharing insights from his recent trip to Brazil. Gabriel and another young man spent 6 weeks on an LST mission trip. "Let's Start Talking" is a mission method couched in helping people enhance their English skills by reading and discussing the Bible.

I am sure that Gabriel will be able to speak about several people he studied with during his time in Brazil. In addition, the local church where the young men were centered was strongly encouraged by their presence.

I bring you greetings from the West Main Church of Christ in Medford, Oregon. Pam and I assembled with them last Sunday.

We had a good talk with both Blaine Rennels and Carissa Sweet. Both have been active members of the Campus Ministry. Blaine just graduated but Carissa will be back with us in the Fall.

I also learned that Shane and Vanessa Flock are currently in Bend. And Shane has another full time teaching job in Ft. Rock for the next school year.

It is always a good affirmation of our effectiveness in Campus Ministry and as a church when people who leave here continue to be active in their faith after they leave.

One other interesting fact: I was looking at an item in the song book rack designed for visitors. As I started reading, I took note that the language was very familiar. As a matter of fact, it was the very same language as the bookmark in our Pew Bibles. (There were a few minor changes to reflect that particular congregation.) I've heard that, "imitation is the highest form of flattery."

And I thank God that some of our work can bless another church.

It is good to give gifts. This past week Jaron and I had "Daddy Days" while Amanda and Josiah went to a homeschooling training. Jaron and I worked at the UCC, ran errands, and had lots of fun. One thing we did was pick up his prescriptions at Fred Meyer...and buy a toy. It was so hard to choose and when we finally bought Toothless, Jaron kept saying, "this is the best toy ever." It felt good to give him that gift. You know, he'll enjoy it for a week or maybe even a month because it is so cool, but the real gift this week was not the toy. I also had the opportunity to give Jaron the gift of my time. How tempting it was to fill it with UCC email, house work, and to do lists. I could get lots of stuff done and still spend 'time' with Jaron. We did some of that but the real gift came when we sat down to read books together, to play together, to go swimming together, and to talk together. The gift was my complete attention and focus on Jaron. I think this is part of what James was referring to when he said...

"Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows." (James 1:17)

God's love is revealed when we give the gift of time and undivided attention to others. May we continue to be a body that gives gifts that show the world God's love.
