Gregg's Good News

Gregg and Pam Strawn and Daylen Cossey went to Camp Irondyke last week, where Gregg preached twice a day most days. Camp Irondyke is in the Wallowa-Whitman National Forest, and is a primitive campground with port-a-potties and no drinking water, so campers must supply their own. The camp meets annually for a fun time of fellowship, making connections, learning, and outdoor activities. We are grateful to have a Minister who loves to share the Word of God with everyone, and for the people who joined him on this adventure!

Thoughts, Questions, Notes

We are organizing the responsibilities for the Buildings and Grounds Ministry. We have already made some assignments and we are looking for someone(s) to be responsible for specific areas. If you are willing to volunteer, you would be the go to person for this area and would be responsible for organizing routine maintenance and service. This does not mean you would do all of the work, but that you would organize who will do the work while keeping Building and Grounds Ministry Facilitator, Maria Gomes, informed. We have the following needs as we need someone to be responsible for: 1. Baptistry maintenance, 2. Heating and Cooling maintenance, 3. The Outside of the UCC, 4. The Inside of the UCC. If you are interested please contact Maria and/or the elders. Also, we would like people to volunteer for occasional odd jobs where Maria or someone could call and see if you would be willing to take care of something. You would say yes or no as to your availability. Please talk to Maria or the Elders.

It was good to be on vacation and enjoy the sun and thunderstorms of Wyoming. I enjoyed riding my bike 3000 feet up a mountain after starting at 5000 feet. There was not enough air up there. We were also blessed to worship with the brothers and sisters at the Worland Church of Christ and share with them the exciting things happening at the UCC.

It is good to be home. To prepare for a great Roundlake Christian Camp. To prepare for our student leader retreat, where we plan and vision what the year will look like. To rejoice with Ryan Bracht and to be back for Rodrigo's great BBQ today at the baby shower.
