2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.
3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

Gregg's Good News

It is clear that we live in a time period where many people do not prioritize looking for God by coming to a church building. Since the Garden of Eden, God’s approach has been to go looking for people who have broken away from Him. Consequently, it is good for us to experiment with having the church leave the building and go where people are apt to gather. For us to go looking for people is one important way to imitate God. Jesus himself said, “I have come to seek and to save that which is lost.”

So, I invite you to join me in taking the church outside the building. On three Sundays this Summer: Tonight, July 24, and Aug. 28 we are gathering at Cloverland Park at 5:00 pm.

After some singing, prayer and Lord’s Supper, we will eat together picnic style. Then, everyone is free to go play and meet other people who are already at the park.

Ride your bikes, bring your kids and a sandwich or something simple to eat. A soccer ball or Frisbee could also be a good item to attract a few folks to join us.

The organizers will bring a few chairs. But if you have a camp chair, it would be good to bring it along.

Here’s another idea: If you have a friend you’ve been wanting to introduce to church people, invite them to come and join the picnic.

One of the strengths of this church is our ability to sing. Recently, the Bracht family was singing for Joyce Brooks while she was in the hospital. A staff member commented to Joyce that they were all enjoying the singing. “It sounded like angels.”

Sometimes we take for granted the power and impact of acapella singing. Bring your voice and the gift of singing so that passers-by can hear the praise of God.

Circle Church of Christ has some phenomenal singing! It is with these voices we sing God’s praises. Tonight at 5pm at Cloverland Park we have a huge opportunity to reach people. They will hear us and be drawn to that beautiful sound. Let’s not waste this chance! Bring your beautiful voices and let’s lift Him up.

What a beautiful wedding. Two people, Cory and Carissa Murray. So much in love. So oblivious to the trials that will come. So unaware of the joys that await them. So unconscious of the two cultures that are coming together to be one. So ready to work together in this thing called marriage. So prepared to build a family that seeks God and grows as disciples. I am excited that Cory and Carissa are now married. That they are now one body. But this marriage is not just one body with each other. It includes being one body with Jesus. They were united with him in a death like his in the waters of baptism. Buried and raised to a new life. Given the gift of the Holy Spirit. Now they live united together and with the Holy Spirit. This is one cord that will not be easily broken. Cory and Carissa have a strong foundation. A strong faith that unites them together. They will overcome all the ‘blips’ that come in marriage and life because they have the Holy Spirit with them. They also have the church to walk with them. We will walk with them. We also want to walk with you. If you are having a ‘blip’ in your marriage or relationship talk to a minister or elder. If you find yourself in super love and want to get married, talk to Gregg or myself, and we will do premarital coaching with you. This morning I have the opportunity to share about the UCC with the teens at the West Main Church of Christ in Medford. We are looking for more students like Cory and Carissa to come grow with us at OSU and Circle. Next week my family and I leave for Nebraska. We will visit my grandparents’ farm in Sargent and my other grandmother in Ogallala. Plus we will fly to Denver and visit my sister. Pray Justus handles the plane trip and travel well and Amanda survives the trip with a bunch of boys.

On Wednesday evenings, we have classes for all ages! Children gather at 6:45pm for VBC and adult study begins at 7. Everyone finishes at 8:00pm.
