Gregg's Good News

After weeks of preparation, the 10th Annual Community Christmas Sing-A-Long is history. If all you see is the 2 hours on Saturday evening, you may not realize the amount of work that goes on to prepare.

I want to thank the various singers who joined me on Sunday evenings to review songs and learn a new one. The new song, "Magnificat" became the driving force behind the design of the Worship plan. Hopefully, we can include that song on a Sunday morning soon. Thanks, too, to the trio of singers: Rod Holland, Bill McCaughan and Jordan Strawn.

Amanda Swick used her creative talents to build an attractive Power Point show. It looked seasonal and accomplished its primary purpose of presenting information. Casey Long worked to provide the program. Maria Gomes secured various gifts to give to attenders.

Denise Eastridge, Laurie Eastridge and John Baxter were active in the P. A./Video booth during the event and in the preparation. Shannon Sorah was key to organizing dessertsbut sadly fell on Saturday and broke an arm bone. Recover well, sister!

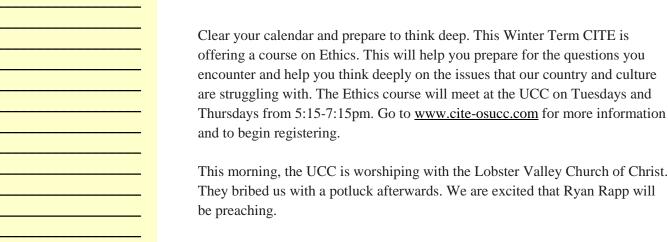

In addition, a sizable group of people assisted with decorating the building, preparing desserts, ushering the crowd at the event, and conversing with our guests. Thank you to all for serving in various ways.

COMING IN DECEMBER: I have been working on a Mentoring Series that I plan to present beginning next Sunday evening, Dec. 17. The focus is "Stress." Perhaps right during the middle of holiday and end of year busyness, we can discover ways to catch our breath and be renewed. That is, if I can find the time to be prepared. \bigcirc
