Gregg's Good News

For several years, this congregation has chosen to provide food boxes for members and neighbors. We focus our efforts around Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Some of the assistance is intentionally designed to benefit our own brothers and sisters. So, if this is a gift that would help you, please do not be reluctant to put your name in as a recipient. Speak to Charlene or call Maria.

Others of us are currently in a place of life where giving food to benefit others will not damage our budgets. If that describes you, I hope you will join in the effort. I am reminded of Jesus' words, "Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you." (Luke 6:38)

This effort provides a great opportunity to involve children in the process of giving. They may want to take a dollar out of their piggy bank and join you at the store to shop for a food item. Even if you provide the money, allowing kids to choose the item and carry it into the church building can be a positive experience. Especially when you remind them at a dinner time prayer, "We gave food away and tonight we still have plenty to eat." That is a very concrete way to communicate trust in God.

Pam and I will be traveling Oct. 3-12. I am preaching 7 sermons for the congregation in Homer, Alaska Oct. 7-11.

TUESDAY EAT IN OR TAKE OUT

Fall is here and the pace has picked up! Some of us here at Circle want to help with that. For a small donation, twice a month, members can come by the building and grab dinner for themselves and their family. You may sit here and enjoy it or you may take it with you. A schedule and menu will be coming soon. Please use the service being offered to you. If you have any questions, contact Loretta Hartman.

For the next few weeks at FUSE, we are watching a one-man drama by Tim Keller called "The Prodigal God". As you may have already guessed, we are diving into the Parable of the Prodigal Son, but this parable is actually about two sons. The prodigal son disrespected his father by asking for his inheritance and wasting the money, but he came back home. The older son disrespected his father by not attending the feast thrown in his brother's honor. By not attending this feast, and by referring to his brother as his father's son, the older brother is refusing to acknowledge his brother as family. This is upsetting to the father, but he cannot change his older son's mind. The older son has done EVERYTHING his father asked him, knowing that he will inherit his father's estate when he dies. He is jealous of the younger son, who wasted what his father gave him and now gets a big party in his honor...at the older son's expense! Both sons want the father's things, but not the father. The difference is that the younger son repented. We all know that the younger son was lost-he was very immoral and wasted everything his father gave him. But the older son is still lost. He wants the father's things, but he does not want the father's love.
