Evening Schedule

5:00pm "Gender & Sexuality" Discussion Led By Gregg & Adam

Gregg's Good News

Imagine that every day started with the exact same task. You took hold of a container and started hiking through the dust to a source of water. When you arrived, you realized the water was a muddy mess filled with things that would make an American sick. But this water was the best available. So you fill the container and hoist it onto your head for the long walk home. And by the way, you are a 7-year-old girl who cannot go to school because home chores are too important.

Now imagine an alternate reality. A group of caring Christians have come to your area and drilled a well. Now you don't have to make the long walk only to find water unfit for most people to drink. In addition, a church has started near the new well. The people you meet there are happy to tell you about Jesus, and how to be friends with God.

Both of those imagined stories have a dimension of truth. People in Kenya, East Africa struggle to secure water. Christian Relief Fund drills water wells and plants churches near the new sources of water.

Look at the photos on the east wall of the foyer to see how we have made a difference in the past. And start saving money for a special offering on Sunday June 23rd. With the matching funds that are available, $5,000 is enough to drill another well. This would be a good Summer for us to do just that.

Bridal Shower for Megan Sorah

All ladies are invited to attend a Bridal Shower for Megan Sorah this Sunday at 1:30pm at the home of Jim and Linda Calkin. Talk to Linda for details.

We had a great time at the Catalyst Retreat for young adults this past weekend.

Lindsay used her people gathering skills to meet everyone and invite them to UCC activities. Jeremy was a good friend to Ko and Eddie, helping them with the new Christian songs and showing them the camp. Alex and Alyssa were leaders on the ropes course, and it was a joy to see a young married couple working as a team to give the students a spiritual experience they will remember for the rest of their lives.

Finally, Eddie and Ko got to experience confession and express Christian emotions for the first time. Lord, thanks for giving me such a wonderful group of students who

Please keep my family in your prayers. My grandmother just died last week and I will be attending her funeral today. She was a Godly woman and had a full life, but it is
