Thomas' Takeaways

Today we welcome Milton Jones from Christian Relief Fund, and we praise God for not only his and CRF's efforts, but also for your generosity in being able to contribute to building a fourth well. It should go without saying, but clean water is a literally life-giving necessity, and the impact of a community gaining fresh water will be felt for generations to come. Thank you, Circle.

I grew up with a well, and I didn't realize there was such a thing as 'city water' until I was in double-digits, though I knew that the water from my grandparents' house just tasted weird. We had a reliable well, it only got low once, and while it never dried up, I remember the adjustments we had to make and worry about what would happen if it were to. This is the closest I've ever come to not having water, and even then, Walmart was just a 15-minute drive away.

I do wonder how people's spiritual wells are doing at any given moment. I wonder how many people have never actually had a full spiritual well to begin with, and how many peoples' have dried up over the years, with spiritual dirt or mud being the best thing they have. You can't help but think of John 4, where the woman was drawing water from a physical well, which was and is supremely needed, yet her spiritual well was dry and could only be replenished by Jesus.

We shall pray that the well CRF builds will impact and sustain many people, but let us also pray that each of us have and live out lives replenished and sustained by the deep wells of living water in Jesus Christ, that turn life to life eternal. Many people in our community, who have never known a lack of physical water, are desperately thirsty for true life. What a blessing to be able to show the world both!

Beth Moore is coming to Eugene in less than a month! Several people from Circle are attending her talk on July 26th and 27th in Eugene. Let Renee know TODAY if you want to go so she can get you the group rate ($59) and save you $20!

We just got back from an immeasurably rewarding week at Camp Yamhill. We had 9 Baptisms at camp, and 1 related Baptism which I will mention below. Special thanks to Lindsay House for being a ladies counselor and Alex Bracht, George House, and Caleb Jensen for helping me recruit for UCC and lead campfire. We had 9 new recruits sign up for UCC's Fall Retreat and/or New Recruits Weekend 2020!

The best part of camp, however, happened on the ride home. Eric Jensen picked the boys up and as they were debriefing on camp, Caleb told his father that there were 9 Baptisms at camp, and there was going to be one more student, but he wanted to wait to get home so his father could baptize him and his church family could witness the event. This student, of course, was our own Caleb Jensen! Caleb wants you all to know that the love and encouragement of Circle Church of Christ was instrumental in him coming to faith. So if you haven't heard yet, Caleb committed his life to Christ! Praise God!

I said a silent prayer at his Baptism that I would never again have to baptize another youth group student, because they would have the support of a loving Christian father who has modeled faith in Jesus. This is probably a crazy idealistic prayer that won't stand the test of time, but it's true of the Jensen family.
