It was a good week for recruiting. I got to give two future UCC students a tour, and connect a future U of O student to the new Campus Ministry in Eugene. I'm very excited about having Adam Shahan (Jeremy's younger brother), Shelby Park (daughter of Woodburn Church of Christ's Minister) and Melanie Cavanaugh (from Coos Bay) at UCC. Keep your eyes peeled for these new students, and tell them sincerely that you have been praying for them!

This is a week of anticipation for me. I'm putting my nose to the grind stone, trying to cross all my t's and dot all my lower case j's before the students arrive. This scripture came to mind: "But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he already has? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently" (Romans 8:24-25). What are you hoping for? Sometimes it's hard to wait. It can make us anxious or discouraged. But this encouraging verse comes next: "And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will" (Romans 8:27). God knows exactly what we need, and he will provide it in his good time. He's making us wait patiently for a good reason.
