New Life

Cody and Michelle welcomed Elias (Eli) Wayde Yoshio Parsons on the night of Wednesday January 8th. He was 6 lbs, 11oz and 20 ¾" long at birth.

Please see Jann Bracht if you would like to provide a meal for Cody, Michelle, Owen and Eli to enjoy.

"The Main Thing"

1. To love the Lord our God with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind and with all our strength.
2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.
3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

Upcoming Events

January 12th: Potluck
(Last Name A-H: Main Dish, I-P: Side/Salad/Fruit, Q-Z: Dessert)
January 12th, 5:45pm: Worship at Park Place (2595 NE Jack London St)

Thomas' Takeaways

Spiritual Resolutions

On Thursday, I went to my latest go-to place for lunch (thanks Ryan Bracht...he knows why) and had what some would say is a negative experience. As such, I'll not be naming the specific place, but the usual meal is a delicious take on a taco salad.

First, the server never made eye contact with me, which I notice. Then, they skipped over several ingredients that usually come with it which I had to ask for and were put in sparingly. When asked, "Queso, salsa, sour cream or cheese?" I responded with "Mild, corn, yes and yes," to which they skipped the queso, put on the wrong salsa, and put on the skimpiest bit of cream and cheese. They started to put on the lid when I asked for two additional ingredients and with a sigh, they appeased me. I said thank you, but they had already moved on to another customer. I myself was quite pressed for time, so though now underwhelmed with my lunch, I paid and left.

What are YOU thinking about this experience? What are YOUR thoughts on the server? Many people would begin to think of descriptions – lazy, unfocused, rude, uncaring. And that would be a mistake on our part. What we'd be doing is called Fundamental Attribution Error, and it happens when we assume someone's character based on their actions in a present moment, while we often will only judge our own actions by our intentions. This is the same thing as calling someone who runs a just-changed red light a jerk but, when it happens to you, justifying it by any number of reasons.

I have no idea what this server's day, week, month, year, or life is and has been like. What could happen just this morning that would affect YOUR day? Here's my point: Philippians 2 calls us to put others' interests above our own, as Christ did for us. Thus, while my salad was a little less delicious than usual, sometimes putting others' interests above your own simply means to give them the benefit of the doubt in your own head and heart. This year, I challenge us to be aware of this, particularly in the church, so that no member or visitor who comes into our presence will walk away underwhelmed with who God and Jesus are. A person's relationship with God ain't just a taco salad, after all. Grace to you.

Laughter: A Gift From The Lord

"When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dreamed. Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy. Then it was said among the nations, 'The Lord has done great things for them.'" ~Psalm 126:1-2

A special thing has happened this term—natural friendships have formed at UCC and laughter is common. As the Psalmist says, laughter is a gift from God. After our Tuesday night Bible study, students stay 'til 9 or 10pm talking and laughing, long after Grandpa Stutzman has gone to bed. The students plan hikes and movie nights without my knowledge. On a usual Tuesday night, we have students from 4 different countries and 4 different religions coming together to worship, read the Bible and pray. Afterward, they all fill the room with laughter. I couldn't be happier about this. The Lord has done great things for us.
