Thomas' Takeaways

Father's in Today's World

Happy Father's Day to you! Fatherhood is an integral, essential, and wonderful blessing, and I am thankful every day for the fathers both in and out of our congregation who take that stewardship seriously and faithfully.

It's worth pointing out, as is true with these kinds of days through the year, that this isn't a happy or celebratory day for everyone. Absentee and non-present fathers are far too prevalent in our world. Earthly fathers don't live forever. Relationships once strong can and do become estranged. Stepfathers both struggle to be the best they can be as well as don't try at all. Whatever your situation with you father, we as the church, made up of imperfect people who are only made perfect through Christ, stand with you, embrace you, celebrate with you, mourn with you, and are simply with you.

There is a time and place to quote the unfortunate statistics and to call out those who are not upholding their stewardship, in any context. However, in today's broken world, I'm convinced that the world doesn't need to hear what's wrong so much as see what is right. I am thankful for the many fathers I see who are involved, loving, striving to be the men God made them to be, and yes, who embrace and learn from their faults. I know that they often become fathers to others without meaning to, and that's a good thing. We can pray that their positive example will inspire the next generation to be that and more. I'm thankful for the fathers who show the strength it takes to not only be courageous but vulnerable, to lead and care, and who are confident enough to proclaim they are nothing without Christ. Those kinds of fathers can, will, and do change the world, one child at a time.

Today, pray a prayer of thanks for a father you're thankful for, even if not your own earthly father. Your Heavenly Father hears, knows, and loves you. Grace to you.

Special thanks to my life group and some others for helping weed and trim UCC. Casey, Darla, Lorelee, Tom & Heidi Powell, Jerry & Sue Smith, and Jim & Linda Calkin all helped out. Eric, Jann and Alex Bracht also came by. Everyone social distanced and wore masks and gloves. It was all outside, so keeping the government regulations was easy. It was great to see everyone serving God's kingdom in a safe and effective way. God is still working in this time and so is the Church. To Him be the glory!

We Are Here For You

We continue to appreciate the generosity in giving from church members. We are a family, and if you need help or know someone who needs help financially please do not hesitate to make this known to the Elders, Ministers, or Maria.
