The Main Thing

1. To love the Lord our God with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind and with all our strength.
2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.
3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

The holidays are here again! As every year, Circle is planning to bless those in need in our community with food. This is available to members of Circle as well as members of our general community. Let Charlene Franklund know if you or anyone you know can be blessed in this way.

So why would we go to all this trouble anyway? I love the book of James by the way that it points out what Christianity in action looks like. All too often, we (myself included) tend to focus on ourselves. What do I get out of it? Why can't I get it done my way? I'll volunteer but only if it is convenient for me and my schedule. I will help if that brother or sister that I kinda don't like aren't there. Simply put, these attitudes aren't Godly. As Christians, we are called to focus on God and others and not ourselves.

Take a look at James 2:14 – 26

:15–17 ““Suppose a brother or sister is without cloths and daily food. If one of you says to him, “Go, I wish you well; keep warm and fed,” but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it not accompanied by action, is dead.””

Here's how we need your help:

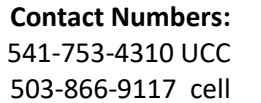

- Food donations for food boxes
- Money donations for Gift Certificates
- Food donations for the food pantry
- Your time donated to help buy, organize or deliver

Please contact Charlene Franklund to let her know how you will help.

It's good to be back to doing evangelism. Covid-19 was so funky. Without new students here, I felt a lack of purpose and effectiveness in my walk with God. A campus minister without college students is a lonely guy. Now that the students are back, I am able to meet new people, serve them, listen to their religious beliefs and share the Gospel with them. Also, I'm very happy that the new INTO OSU coordinator is very supportive of partnering with UCC. She was gone last week in Mexico and needed someone to lead a hike to the covered bridge, so she asked me to do it! She's post-Catholic and does not have faith, but somehow I connected with her and we built mutual trust. She let me lead a hike of 20 students, with no university involvement at all. What an honor and a great opportunity to meet students for God!

Also, special thanks to Sara Charrez for coming with me on this hike. She met 3 Spanish speaking women on the hike and invited them all to come to UCC. Great work Sara!
