From the Desk of Edward Gunselman

Wow! What a lot of changes Circle has seen over the last two years. Not the least of which is the fact that Circle has two new Elders: Rolland and myself. Already, we have come to realize that the two of us simply can't do everything. The reality, though, is that even if we could, that is not the right way. Our desire is for each and every member at Circle to be "fully in".

I Corinthians 10:24

“Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor.”

Philippians 2:4

“Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interest of others.”

Hebrews 10:24-25

“And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up on meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another – and all the more as you see the Day approaching.”

Circle family, we need to, no, we MUST, pull together. An old saying says that “20% of the people do 80% of the work.” Well, that just isn’t acceptable. We are all different parts of the same body. It takes all of us. If a hand or a foot doesn’t do their part, then the body isn’t fully functioning as God intended. So, what can you do?

Right now, we have needs in several areas. Please consider how you can help:

- Education Coordinator
- Blood Drive Coordinator
- Teachers
- Bookkeeper
- Writing articles for the bulletin

Please contact either Rolland or myself if you are willing to help with any of these or in other ways. The worst thing to do is nothing.

Recruits Weekend Potluck Today

Recruits weekend is today! As I am writing this (Wednesday afternoon) the students coming are Casey and Kaylee Atsbury, Luis Estrada, Sam Deuel, Shawn Durr, Connor Dukes and Siv Cloyd. Oh, also there is this guy named Caleb Jensen that you may have met. This is the biggest recruits weekend since I have been at Circle. We give all glory to God and thank you for your prayers!

Make sure you meet these students today and make them feel welcome. They made a mature decision to commit themselves to God and think about their future this weekend. Also, you can help by coming to the potluck downstairs right after church. Forgot to bring a dish? That's ok, there is still time to go ask Colonel Sanders for help (fast food is fine).

Finally, Mark and Casey are stepping down as elders today. We thank them for their faithful service for so many years (also, thanks to Nancy and Darla). Make sure to give them an encouraging word or write them a card. Finally, we plan on having a big Elder Retirement party for them in January, so be on the lookout for more information!
