Special thanks to everyone who helped out with our Keizer trip. Sai preached, Garry lead songs in English and Spanish, Caleb did the opening prayer, Marco did scripture reading, and David translated the sermon, and communion into Spanish. As we were planning this trip, Grant Long told me that their congregation has about 10 Spanish speakers and they are gradually trying to become a bilingual church. "That's great," I said, "we've got 2 Spanish speakers, so let's do a bilingual service!" It took me back to my missionary days. I also think this is the direction more churches in Oregon should move. The Hispanic population is growing, so if our churches want to grow, we need to reflect this diversity. Our team did a great job and I was moved to tears during the service. It made me think, the first Church service (Pentecost, Acts 2) and the last Church service (in Heaven, Revelation 7:9) were multilingual. It was a great opportunity to see HIS Kingdom coming. Praise God.
