Do you ever feel like you're working your tail off but not making a bit of difference?

Today I was reading through the book of Nehemiah, and came across a word that jumped off the page at me: ZEALOUSLY. In chapter 3, Nehemiah was listing people who helped repair the temple -- not an exciting job, I'm sure! Each person was listed as having "made repairs" or "repaired another section", but Baruch, the son of Zabbai was listed as having, "ZEALOUSLY repaired another section".

The word, “zealously” means: devoted, diligent, enthusiastic, eager, and passionate.
Repairing the temple would have been exceptionally hard work for everyone involved. It was an important enough job that people received recognition for it by being mentioned in God’s word, yet the adverb, “zealously” was only used to describe Baruch’s work. So, you can imagine the kind of impression that Baruch must have made on Nehemiah (or God,) in order for his service to be mentioned in such an honorary fashion.

Sometimes we don't feel like the work we do has any significance, but God's Word tells us:

Colossians 3:23-24: “Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.”

I pray that Baruch's example will inspire us this week, so that whatever we do, whether big or small, we will do it ZEALOUSLY for the Lord.

Did you know there is an example of door knocking evangelism in the Hebrew Scriptures? In 2 Chronicles 30, Hezekiah decides to invite all the unbelievers in Northern Israel to come to the Passover in Southern Judah. Here is part of his message, "People of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to you who are left, who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria. . . Do not be stiff-necked, as your ancestors were; submit to the LORD. Come to his sanctuary, which he has consecrated forever."

Here is the result of the door knocking: "The couriers went from town to town in Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun, but people scorned and ridiculed them. Nevertheless, some from Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and went to Jerusalem."

This reminds me of doing Evangelism in the Pacific Northwest. We bring a true and urgent message to a post-Christian people who have mixed their Christianity with other belief systems. To them, our message seems intolerant, antiquated and ridiculous. Most people reject God's call to return to him. However, a few will listen and return. If we can reach one person, it will make an eternal difference.
