“The Main Thing”

1. To love the Lord our God with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind and with all our strength.
2. To love our neighbors as ourselves.
3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

From The Desk Of Summer Shore

“Let the redeemed of the LORD tell their story-- those he redeemed from the hand of the foe.” Psalm 107: 2 (NIV) If you’ve flipped through Netflix recently, you’ll have seen there’s no shortage of rom-coms and “happily-ever-afters”. But we all know real life isn’t quite as fancy or formulaic as even the best movie. There’s no soft filter smoothing the fine lines on my face, and no theme song playing in the background. I don’t have a trendy assistant/best friend that brings me my coffee while we banter about our latest shenanigans. And I don’t wear Gucci or Prada. My story is a little less shiny. There are seasons of joy and sorrow, faith and doubt. There are times of courage and times of fear. My husband and I know the joy and challenges of having three awesome kids. We know the pain of grief and the hope of heaven as we wait to meet loved ones again someday. There have been detours and windy roads, and plenty of places where it wasn’t clear what to do. Entire chapters of my life story could be dedicated to the art of waiting. And every now and then there’s a lightning bolt of clarity and direction, launching me into a new and exciting adventure. But as I look back over the years, I see another story as well. The story of Jesus, at work in my life, laughing when I’m goofy, crying with me when I am sad, redeeming my pain for purpose, and standing by me triumphantly in victory. His presence has been constant, even when I wasn’t looking for him. God has written my story into His bigger story of love. He has gone to the greatest lengths to make sure that we can be with Him, secure and loved. His love is true and perfect. God’s love drives out fear. It’s patient and kind and keeps no record of the wrong we do. It endures all things. In fact, the theme of the entire Bible is the story of God’s unfailing love for us! This is the firm foundation upon which our identity is founded. Who we are at our very core is “beloved by God”. We can know, without a doubt that God loves us. One of my very favorite hymns captures this so beautifully: Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine O what a foretaste of glory divine Heir of salvation, purchase of God Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood This is my story, this is my song Praising my Savior all the day long Perfect submission, all is at rest I in my Savior am happy and blessed Watching and waiting, looking above Filled with His goodness, lost in His love This is my story, this is my song Praising my Savior all the day long Our life may not be perfect, but we can have the perfect love of Jesus. He never abandons us, he pursues us and protects us. We can experience that perfect submission and rest that the song speaks of. We can be filled with God’s goodness and get lost in His love. Let this be your story and song too! Rest in the knowledge that the God who created the universe and everything in it thought the world needed one of you too. You have value and worth and are deeply, and profoundly loved.

Special thanks to everyone who helped out on our Lobster Valley support trip. Sai preached, David did communion, Elisha lead prayers, Sarah and Bhavia cooked lunch, Anya did Powerpoint and Daniel helped drive. Absolutely everyone helped out in some way. These students are not consumers, they serve Jesus and UCC. We have a great team this year. Lobster Valley is such a warm, loving and supportive congregation I always like to start with them. They are our smallest supporting congregation (in terms of membership), but our second largest donor (in terms of dollars). We have so many hard working sacrificial supporters.
