From The Desk Of Renee Gunselman

I've been thinking a lot about the people God has put in my life that point me to Him. Through these people God has shown me His grace, care, compassion and many other attributes that are a reminder to continue this journey with Him.

What follows is a page out of a book I acquired when I was in college, God is No Fool by Lois A. Cheney. Once in a while I pull this book out to give me some things to think about and then consider scriptures that come to mind as a result.

BITS AND PIECES

Bits and pieces, bits and pieces.
People important to you, people unimportant to you cross your life, touch it with love and carelessness and move on. There are people who leave you and breathe a sigh of relief and wonder why you ever came into contact with them. There are people who leave you and you breathe a sigh of remorse and wonder why they had to go away and then leave such a gaping hole. Children leave parents; friends leave friends. Acquaintances move on. People change homes. People grow apart. Enemies hate and move on. Friends love and move on. You think on the many who have moved into your hazy memory. You look on those present and wonder.

I believe in God's master plan in lives. He moves people in and out of each other's lives, and each leaves his mark on the other. You find you are made up of bits and pieces of all who ever touched your life, and you are more because of it, and you would be less if they had not touched you. Pray God that you accept the bits and pieces in humility and wonder, and never question and never regret.

Bits and pieces
Bits and pieces.

Proverbs 18:24 A man of many companions may come to ruin but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.
Philemon 1:4
I thank my God every time I remember you in my prayers.

Thoughts, Questions, Notes

Christmas Food Boxes

Let Charlene Franklund know if you yourself or know of someone that would benefit from the holiday gift cards/food boxes. Or if you would like to financially donate to the holiday food boxes.

Christmas gift card/food boxes will be handed out by December 16th.

Please let Charlene Franklund know if you would like to deliver gift cards or food boxes to people in the community.

Need to see if anyone can build a new donation box for clothing giveaway. It does need to be waterproof and have 2 openings. One for dropping clothes in and the other to remove donations and ability to keep it locked up. Please see Lorelea for more information

We had a great recruits' weekend. I hope everyone got to meet Mikah, Charles, and Josiah. Mikah has applied to OSU, so it is likely you will see her in the fall. Also, thanks to the Jensens for hosting the boys and the Houses for hosting the girls.

We our devo came from Deuteronomy 30, " . . . I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live and that you may love the Lord your God, listen to his voice and hold fast to him." We discussed that once you enter College, you must choose to follow God for yourself (your parents will not be there). We did a mock "Beaver Fair" skit where many different clubs were trying to get the recruits to "sign up," handing out candy and bribes. Jesus stood in the corner saying, come, follow me. I want your entire life." The point is in college everyone is competing for your time, but don't neglect Jesus.
