Esther

In case you're unfamiliar with the term, typology is a special kind of symbolism that is found throughout the Bible. Specifically, a "type" is a name given for a symbol of prophecy, and even more specifically a type in the Old Testament is a person or thing that is meant to foreshadow something in the New Testament. For example, in 1 Cor. 15:45 the apostle Paul reveals that Adam is a type of Christ: "So it is written: 'The first man Adam became a living being'; the last Adam, a life-giving spirit."

Soon after Esther was crowned queen, she learned about the plot to kill her people from her cousin Mordecai. He asked her to go to the King on behalf of her people to plead for their lives. Unfortunately, going to the King would place Esther's life in danger since no one was able to go before the King without being summoned under the penalty of death. But, Esther was the only one willing and able to risk her life to save the Jews. She interceded on behalf of her people, and because the King loved her, they were saved because of her.

As we continue to study the Old Testament in Sunday morning Bible class, I would encourage you to look for “types” and other illustrations that foreshadow Christ and God’s amazing plan of salvation for us, His people.

Join us at Circle Church of Christ for a SuperBowl Party! We will be in the basement starting at 2:30 on February 12th. Some food is provided, but please bring your own favorite game day snacks to share. We will have a devotional at halftime. Please bring your family and your friends here to watch the SuperBowl!

Mark your calendars for the mission dinner/dessert auction. We are going to Manuelito Navajo Children's home—a Church of Christ Children's home in Gallup, NM. We will be doing maintenance all day and teaching the Bible to the kids at night. As usual, this mission is a double mission; we are serving the Navajo kids and sharing the Gospel with internationals on our team. 6 of 11 of the college students are not yet Christians. We plan to have one on one Gospel chats with every non-Christian on the trip! The missionaries we are sending are Tirhas Strawn, Anya Bannister, Sai Parankushum, Garry Winter, Shawn Durr, Jason Kuo, Masataka Miagi, Ryoga Oijima, Yousef and Nick Lee.
