In A Bucket

There are 2 songs on Christian Radio, Let Me Tell you About My Jesus, by Anne Wilson and Good, good Father by Chris Tomlin. Both of these songs bring to mind qualities I saw in my dad that taught me about our heavenly father.

Today I stand in awe of the wonderful earthly father God hand picked for me but because of my earthly father, I stand in awe of our maker and Father in heaven.

What areas of my life and your lives, does God try to show us who He is and what He can do in our lives?

"You're a good good Father....its who you are, you know just what we need."

My dad was an electrician. He became one not from skills he already had but because of skills he learned at a job he accepted, because they thought he had the skills it took. Little did they know, he was just willing to learn and a fast learner. He faked it and as a result, he became an electrician in high demand. He was sent all over the world to perform his duties as an electrician and overseeing BIG engineering and building projects.

As a child and through my teenage years, I remember many occasions when we would be driving the down the streets of Healdsburg, California and I would look up and see my dad in a "bucket" working on the power poles and traffic lights. There were occasions when I was pretty sure he turned the light green for us. He had the ability to control the traffic lights from the "bucket" he climbed into on a regular basis. And you know, that's like our heavenly father too.

When we look up to Him and give Him our hearts and prayers and our time, He has the ability to "control the traffic lights" too. As a child I looked up to my earthly father in that bucket truck but I also looked up to him because he was such a tall man but mostly I looked up to him because he was a man of good example and a man of his word. God wants us to look up to Him as well and rest assured that He is a "good good Father " and a man of his word as well.

I was immensely blessed to have an earthly father that taught me about our heavenly father. But if you didnt have that blessing, who can you look to to teach you about the love our heavenly father has for his children?

Our heavenly father is a good, good father! Lets all climb up in his "bucket". In closing, let me share a scripture that tells us that God is good and we can trust what he tells us.

Psalms 84:11

For the Lord God is a sun and a shield; the Lord bestows favor and honor; No good thing does he withhold from those whose walk is blameless.
