From The Heart Of Lindsay House

Have you ever been through a struggle in life in which it felt the best thing would be to “just give up”? What about an event in your life that you felt like only YOU could take control of? I know for me, it’s often a struggle to keep control of all the circumstances that happen on a day-to-day basis. In my challenges, I often give up and don’t try any further. Unfortunately, it’s easy to give up in today’s society, especially when one may tell you “You do you.” But, I don’t think that God wants it this way.

Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know the testing of your faith develops PERSEVERANCE. Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be MATURE and COMPLETE, not lacking anything. – James 1:1–3 (NIV)

One of the most underrated virtues to have in life is perseverance. It’s fantastic not to give up when facing trials because it shows the world that we are fighters. We continue to persevere through our battles because, through them, we will gain wisdom and maturity.

Today we are celebrating the graduates in our congregation. These people are great examples of perseverance and they’ve achieved much due to their hard work and determination. I pray that as they go on to the next phase of their lives that they will lean on God and know that no matter what circumstances they may face in the future, God can see them through. He will give them the strength and wisdom that they need to become mature and complete, which is what He has designed for us all. God will always have your back.

And don't forget what Jesus says in Matthew 6:34:

"Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own."

Thoughts, Questions, Notes

Won By One, Pepperdine’s A Cappella group, is performing at Circle on June 17th! Can you house the singers? They either need two houses (one for 3 ladies and one for 3 men) or one family to house all 6 students.
