Pruett Family Update
By Thomas Pruett

Our Dear Circle Family,

Greetings from Portland. As you’ve meant so much to us and helped us so incredibly, we wanted to give you a brief update directly from us.

While I’m now eligible for the transplant list, but as transplants only last 12 years on average, the best action going forward for my longest life, Lord willing, is to stay on the heart pump until it is no longer beneficial. This could be next month or 10+ years.

This now gives us the overwhelming freedom to choose what our life looks like going forward within my still many limitations. In the coming months, we’ll be prayerfully considering what we want our life to look like, as well as where we want to live it, keeping in mind family support structures should I pass sooner than expected.

Your continued prayers are appreciated beyond expression, as is your continued encouragement to our family. A burden on my heart will forever be the inability to fully say thank you for Circle’s financial, emotional, physical and spiritual help towards our family over this last year, but beyond that is my simple gratitude that we still have strong relationships with so many of you, and can still call Circle our family. We will continue to pray for you as you have prayed for us.

On behalf of Amy, Madison, Mitchell, Matthew, Moriah, and Melissa, with sincere and humble gratitude,

Thomas

Ladies' Corner

We had a fantastic time at our Women’s Winter Weekend, and learned a lot from Jennifer Rothschild’s study about Haggai. Please pray for us to have safe travels home, and we can’t wait to see our families again!
