Valentine's Day is an interesting holiday. People's view of Valentine's Day seems to change depending on what stage of life they are in.

As a child celebrating Valentine's Day in the US, it is so much fun to prepare and exchange valentines with classmates, especially if those valentines contain stickers or candy. As a middle and high schooler, my dad would give all of his daughters flowers, chocolates, and a stuffed animal. I loved this tradition especially as a middle schooler, waking up to find these surprises! As a high schooler, however, I started to see my friends receive similar boxes of chocolates from their boyfriends and I began to wonder if I would ever receive Valentines presents from a man who was not my dad. Tom was shocked on our first Valentine's Day when I told him all I wanted from him was a box of chocolates in a heart shaped container, but I was so happy to receive those from him!

How much more perfect is God's love for us though?! Last week in our life group we read Hebrews 12, which inspired a conversation about disciplining children the best we can and God's perfect discipline in our lives. I think the same concept can be applied to God's love as well; Here on earth, we love our spouses, parents, children, siblings and friends the best we can, but we also get to experience God's perfect love in our lives. No matter how you feel about Valentine's Day this year, dwell on God's perfect love for you and try to reflect that love to the people in your life.

Hey everyone, wes and I are at Teen Winter Retreat, so sign up for the mission trip with Jibin in the back. We are going to Bay Area Rescue Mission in San Francisco CA to serve homeless adults and kids this Spring Break. We will work each day 6:30 am-9 pm. Please come support us by attending our mission dinner. Our theme is "Lumberjack Breakfast," a breakfast for dinner extravaganza. Wear your flannels and suspenders. Grow a beard! $5 admission. Register by Sunday, February 28. We hope to raise $3,200. If 60 people come to the dinner, this comes out to $53/person, so please start budgeting for this if you can. Also, if you would like to cook a dessert for the fundraiser please contact me (Josh Stutzman, 503-866-9117).
