Reminder:

Covid is over. Pruning is done and it's time for growing to begin.

It's time to come together more often than not. A great way to do that is to share a meal.

Beginning on Wednesday July 3, a meal served in the basement. From 5:45-6:45. Donations will be accepted

This will be a great way to reconnect midweek. Also, a great way to bring friends or family.

Since it is on Wednesdays there will be a Bible Study upstairs at 7:00. Anyone that wants to may attend. It will be a video study of Genesis.

We need to strengthen our relationships as a family. Spending time together is how we do that. Helpers to clean up afterwards would be appreciated.

Easy menu, easy clean up.

Pulled Pork BBQ and Homemade Potato salad

Hope to see you all there.

UCC Work Day, Sunday, September 8, 1-6 pm.

I'm traveling with family right now, but please mark your calendars for UCC Work Day. I see UCC as an "Ellis Island" for the Kingdom of God. It is the first point of contact where many College students meet Jesus and get registered as citizens of His Kingdom. Also, it serves as the fellowship hall of our congregation. We will be re-mulching the flower beds, preforming an interior deep clean, and more. If you are an introvert, this is a great way for you to do Evangelistic work and fulfill the great commission that Jesus gave us.
