Pruett Family Update

Please be keeping the Pruett family in your prayers. On Thursday September 5th Thomas felt sick and he blacked out. He was admitted into the hospital, and could not sit up without feeling lightheaded, dizzy and sick to his stomach. As of Friday September 6th, Thomas was doing better but still in the hospital. He is still undergoing tests and waiting for results. Thomas does still have the LVAD, which is doing the work of his heart while he waits for a heart transplant.

The Pruett family are settling into their new routine and home in Cookeville, TN. Amy is enjoying her new job as a pre-K Teacher's Assistant (although she admits parts of it are difficult), Mitchell and Matthew are adjusting to middle school (Mitchell in 6th grade and Matthew in 5th) and Moriah loves her 2nd grade class. Melissa is enjoying pre-K, but is currently down with a bout of flu. In between moving, connecting and volunteering with Collegiate Church of Christ, and adjusting to school schedules (which started at the beginning of August!), the Pruetts have enjoyed spending time at the county fair and getting occasional treats from Cream City Ice Cream and Ralph's Donut Shop.

Please keep Thomas in your prayers, as well as Amy as she holds down a job and cares for the 4 younger kids while Thomas is in the hospital.
