“Remember those in prison as if you were their fellow prisoners, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering” (Hebrews 13:3).

Please pray for my friend Zach. He has been slowly dying of ALS for the past year. He has a three year old daughter. The worst thing is, his wife just filed for divorce (he’s given me permission to share this, I’ve withheld his last name for anonymity). He is feeling very abandoned right now. This is also hitting me pretty hard. He’s my buddy from college. We traveled together and he used to teach me new songs on guitar. He was part of our men’s Bible study. He’s a kind, funny, gregarious guy, full of life. I’ve had friends and loved ones die before, but this just seems so tragic. So pray for Zach and me. Let’s make the most of every day for Jesus.
