I'm heading to the Rally on the Rock Youth Rally this weekend with Maverik and Jayson. Now I'll rep area wide children's and teen events! I grew up in a small church with a youth group that ranged from 1-10. Church was designed for adults, and I zoned out. Camp was different. I worshiped with my peers and heard the Gospel in words I could understand. It's where I first sensed the Holy Spirit and where I was first called to missions. In Oregon, youth rallies and camps play a crucial role in teen Spiritual formation because teens from small churches get to join a youth group of 100 teens, resulting in faith decisions and healthy marriages. So, if you are a parent or a teen, make summer camp and youth rallies a priority. Parents, be counselors if you can! Plan summer camp NOW and THEN plan sports and vacations. It's possible to do both with good planning, but, if you have to choose one, choose Jesus. Here are Yamhill's Camps: High School is June 15-21; 7th and 8th is June 22-28; 1st and 2th is June 29-30; 5th and 6th is June 6-11; and 3rd and 4th is June 13-18. Finally, Roundlake Christian Camp (6th-12th grade) is August 3-9. What about empty nesters? Help sponsor a kid/teen for summer camp. Yamhill costs about $350, which is tough if you have multiple kids.
