I am at the Pepperdine Bible Lectures. As you are reading this, I just finished having a Jesus conversation with one of my closest college friends who has walked away from the faith. Tomorrow (Monday), I'll be having a similar conversation with one of my cousins. Tuesday, I'm going to have a sin confrontation conversation with someone at the lectures (not Loralee or Mark and Nancy LOL). So pray God will bless me with wisdom, patience and a calm, unflappable attitude. From my perspective, it seems almost totally impossible that any of these conversations will end with repentance, but It's something that the Lord and I must do together. "We do not know what will come. But we do know who will come. And if the last hour belongs to us, we do not need to fear the next minute."
