3. To go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything Christ has commanded us.

Thanks to Alyssa for planning the fall carnival. Halloween is often a dark and licentious holiday, but at Circle, October 31 was filled with light.

I remember when I first started at UCC 11 years ago, Alyssa would go all out transforming UCC into a Haunted House and inviting everyone. It's fun to see her using the skills she developed at UCC to serve the Children's Ministry. She wanted to provide kids, teens and college students with a fun and safe alternative to the intoxicated Corvallis Halloween scene. It's so important to invest in our kids. I love what I do and I think Campus Ministry is the best age for evangelism, but I always say Children's ministry is more important. If a student goes to college and they lack a strong foundation in Jesus, it's very easy for them to get swallowed up by the desires of this world. But I look forward to the day when AnnaBella, AmyBlake, Kai, Odys and Azalea will step on campus and let their lights shine. They will fill the shoes of Maria, Tom, Alex, Alyssa, and Jenn, because their parents loved them enough to sacrifice their time to create a great Children's ministry. The future is bright with possibilities.
